

Mr. Nils Svartz

Acting Director General at the Swedish Civil Contingencies Agency (MSB).

Nils Svartz is the Acting Director General at the Swedish Civil Contingencies Agency (MSB). Mr. Svartz has been at MSB since January 2009 when the agency was established.

Prior to his appointment at MSB, Mr. Svartz was Deputy Director General and Acting Director General at the Swedish Emergency Management Agency (SEMA) in Stockholm.

Prior to this, Mr. Svartz served as Director at SEMA, managing the implementation of the Swedish national digital communications system used by the emergency services and others in the fields of civil protection, public safety and security, emergency medical services and healthcare.

Mr. Svartz has also served as Deputy Police Commissioner at the National Police Board responsible for long-term development.

Prior to his position at the National Police Board, he worked for the Ministry of Justice as special advisor.

Mr. Svartz holds a Master of Law from Lund University.