

CAPT Chuck Wolf, USN
Commander, Naval Special Warfare Group 4

Captain Charles Thomas Wolf is a native of Wisconsin and a former resident of California. He was commissioned via UCLA NROTC in 1985 and graduated from Basic Underwater Demolition\ SEAL training with class 137 in 1986. He is currently assigned as the Commander, Naval Special Warfare Group FOUR, Norfolk, VA. Captain Wolf's additional service assignments include:

Deputy Director for Operations, Joint Special Operations Command (Jul 05-Jun 08). Responsible for OPS and Training of selected air, ground, and maritime special mission units.

Commanding Officer SEAL Team TEN, Plank Owner. (Apr 02- Jun 04) Deployed as Commander NSWTF Afghanistan and as NSW Squadron Commander to Naval Special Warfare Unit TWO. During his command tour, SEAL Team TEN deployed forces to South America, the Horn of Africa, Afghanistan and the European theater of operations.

Special Operations Advisor to Commander Second Fleet. (Jul 00- Apr 02) Responsible for NSW Fleet integration and Carrier Battle Group pre-deployment certification. Following the events of Sept 11th, he served as the Deputy Atlantic Fleet Force Protection advisor to the commander for fleet and shore facilities on the Atlantic.

Executive Officer SEAL Team EIGHT. (May 99-Jul 00) Battlegroup / SEAL integration and support to Southern and European theaters.

Special Operations Command Pacific, SOJ5.(Mar 97-May 99) Korea desk officer. Joint Task Force 510 Theater Response Force lead planner and "ALL SOF" TPDF officer for the Pacific.

Naval Special Warfare Development Group Mobility Squadron Officer in Charge and Boat Development and Mobility Officer. Qualified Officer in Charge Small Craft Fast Support Boat (Oct 90- Oct 93) Element Leader, NSWDC Requirements Officer. (Aug 94-Feb 97)

Aide de camp to Commander Joint Special Operations Command, Fort Bragg. MG Garrison and MG Schoemaker. (Oct 93-Aug 94)

SEAL Team ONE Platoon Commander, Assistant Platoon Commander and Training Officer. (Jul 86-Oct 90)

Captain Wolf is a Joint Specialty Officer, a Harvard Fellow, a non-resident graduate of the Naval War College and holds a bachelor's degree in history from UCLA. He is married to the former Ms. Karen Sue Ange of Norfolk Va.