

Cliff Wiese is a Vice President - Wealth Management with Morgan Stanley Smith Barney and a Chartered Retirement Planning CounselorSM. After graduating from the United States Naval Academy in 1966, Cliff spent twenty-eight years in the Navy's nuclear submarine program, including three command tours, retiring as a Captain. His last assignment in the Navy was as the Executive Assistant to Navy's OPNAV N-6. He subsequently worked in private industry as a senior manager in the defense contracting business providing services in the technology and telecommunications areas before joining Smith Barney in 1999. Cliff works and lives in Carlsbad, California.