

Biography

Michael M. Guzelian
Vice President, Secure Voice and Data Products
General Dynamics C4 Systems

Michael Guzelian is the Vice President for Secure Voice and Data Products for General Dynamics C4 Systems and is responsible for providing reliable, secure communication solutions that protect the most sensitive information in the world. These solutions - ranging from the network, to the desktop, to the individual - make up the largest deployed base of Type 1 encryption products in the world. Guzelian's 25 years of experience has led the SVDP group to being the market leader for Type 1 network encryption.

Guzelian joined General Dynamics, then GTE Government Systems, in 1985 and held positions in the areas of Engineering, Marketing, Development and Management. Mike became the Director of the Secure Voice and Data Products (SVDP) in 2006, and he was promoted to Vice President, SVDP, in 2008.

Guzelian resides with his wife and two daughters in Needham, Massachusetts. He graduated from Northeastern University with a Bachelor of Science and Electrical Engineering and received his Master of Business Administration with a concentration in Management and Marketing from Babson College and attended the Defense Systems Management College in Ft. Belvoir, VA.
