

Captain Thomas W. Jones

Captain Jones graduated from the University of Maryland in December 1983 and immediately reported to Officer Candidate School in Yorktown, Virginia. He later earned a Master of Science Degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Illinois, a Master of Public Administration Degree from Old Dominion University and recently a Master of Arts Degree in National Security and Strategic Studies from the Naval War College.

Following graduation from OCS in May of 1984, Captain Jones served on the Fifth Coast Guard District Civil Engineering staff, and then Coast Guard Cutters TANEY and INGHAM. Following his sea tours, Captain Jones reported to the Greater Antilles Section as the Base Civil Engineer and Industrial Manager. Two years later he attended the University of Illinois and then reported to the Facilities Design and Construction Center, Atlantic where he served in project and team manager positions until June of 1996. From 1996 until 1998 he served as the Integrated Support Command Portsmouth Facilities Engineering Division Chief. Afterwards, Captain Jones served for three years as a Program Reviewer and the Acquisition, Construction and Improvements (AC&I) Budget Coordinator in the Coast Guard Chief of Staff's office. Prior to attending the Naval War College in August 2004, CAPT Jones served for three years as Commanding Officer of Civil Engineering Unit Providence.

Captain Jones is a registered Professional Engineer in the Commonwealth of Virginia. His personal awards include two Meritorious Service Medals, two Coast Guard Commendation medals and three Achievement Medals. He was named the Coast Guard Engineer of the Year in 2004.