

Biography of Captain Jeff P. Delinski

Jeff Delinski was born and raised in Erie, Pennsylvania. He moved to the Washington, D.C. area in 1988, and joined the Metro Transit Police Department (MTPD) in 1989. During his nineteen-year career, he has served in a variety of assignments such as the Motorcycle Unit, Auto Theft Unit, Public Information Officer, Homeland Security Grant Administration, Commander of the Training Division and District Commander. He was Officer of the Year in 1992 and received the Metro General Manager's Award for Meritorious Service in 2005.

In his current capacity as Deputy Chief of the Field Services Bureau, Jeff is responsible for directing the operations of the Criminal Investigations Division, Training Division, Communications Division, Crime Analysis Unit, Administration, and Budget Office.

Jeff received an Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice from Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, a Bachelor's Degree in Administration of Justice from George Mason University, and a Master's Degree in Management from Johns Hopkins University. He graduated from the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy, Quantico, Virginia in 1998.

As a part-time faculty member at the George Washington University College of Professional Studies, Police Science Program, Jeff teaches police officers from around the National Capitol Region important topics such as Leading Teams and Ethics in Law Enforcement.

Jeff resides in Prince William County, Virginia with his wife Richelle and sons Trenton and Ethan.