

Robert Riegler presently serves as the Director of the State and Local Government Program Office within the Office of Intelligence & Analysis in The U.S. Department of Homeland Security. As a Senior Intelligence Officer in DHS Mr. Riegler spearheaded the development of relationships concerning many State and Local Government Fusion Centers and was a co-lead for the DHS-wide effort to formalize policy concerning Fusion Center Relationships. Mr. Riegler is the DHS representative to the Department of Justice's Global Justice Initiative, the Co-chair of the National Fusion Center Coordination Group and an advisory member of the Criminal Intelligence Coordinating Council. Prior to working at DHS Mr. Riegler worked at Booz Allen Hamilton in the Strategic Communications Area; the Defense Intelligence Agency as a National Intelligence Support Team (NIST) Intelligence Specialist, serving in Operations Iraqi Freedom, Enduring Freedom and Noble Eagle; Chevy Chase Bank as a Corporate Vice-President; and Indeck Power Overseas Ltd. as the Regional Manager – Pacific Rim. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Government from the University of Maryland and a Juris Doctor from The Catholic University of America – Columbus School of Law. Mr. Riegler entered the Senior Executive Service in 2007 after nearly fifteen years of Government employment. Mr. Riegler has been married for eighteen years to the former Anna Rehmann and has a fifteen year old son. Mr. Riegler has numerous military awards and decorations including two Combat Action Ribbons, The Joint Unit Commendation Medal, The Joint Unit Achievement Medal, and four Navy Achievement Medals. He is a member of the Navy Special Warfare Association, the American Bar Association, and an avid skier and golfer.