

Tom Greiner, Accenture

Tom Greiner is Accenture's Program Manager for US-VISIT and the Director of Operations for US Systems Integration. He is a Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM) who began his professional career with Accenture after graduating from Vanderbilt University in 1988. Tom has experience along the entire solution lifecycle, including developing and implementing a custom rebuild of the US Treasury's central accounting system. He has served as the Client Account Lead for Accenture's work at the Department of Commerce, Veterans Affairs, and the Office of Personnel Management.