

Christopher Healy

Christopher Healy is a principal on Booz Allen's Organization and Strategy team supporting the Homeland Security and Law Enforcement markets, providing organizational transformation and change management services.

In his 15 years with Booz Allen, Chris has supported all major client markets (civil, defense and security) providing a full range of organization and strategy services. His current clients include agencies within Department of Homeland Security, including: US Citizenship and Immigration Services, Immigration Customs Enforcement, Customs Border Protection as well as Department of Justice.

Chris also leads Booz Allen's Integrated Immigration Initiative (I3), a strategic investment to help clients better understand the inter dependencies within the immigration enterprise.