

Captain Kirby

Capt. Kirby served aboard the guided missile frigate USS AUBREY FITCH (FFG-34) as Electrical Officer, Assistant Navigator and Communications Officer. He also served as Public Affairs Officer aboard the aircraft carrier USS FORRESTAL (CV-59) and on the staff of the Commander, U.S. SECOND FLEET, embarked aboard the command and control ship USS MOUNT WHITNEY (LCC-20). Ashore, Capt. Kirby completed several tours including Public Affairs Officer with the Navy Flight Demonstration Squadron (Blue Angels), and with the staffs of the Chief of Naval Personnel, the Commander, U.S. Naval Forces Europe and the Chief of Naval Operations. Capt. Kirby served as Editor-in-Chief of the Navy's Flagship monthly magazine, All Hands, from 1997-1999, and is currently the Special Assistant for Public Affairs to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.