

MICHAEL PARKER

Michael Parker, Senior Business Strategist, Science Application International Incorporated, Homeland Protection and Preparedness Business Unit

Mike Parker brings 40 plus years of technical experience in the Department of Defense's chemical and biological warfare defense mission. He was the Technical Director of the DOD's chem bio defense laboratory developing and fielding the full array of battle field defensive detection, protection and decontamination materiel as well as leading the Nation's effort to safely destroy the US national chemical warfare agent retaliatory weapons disposal under the international Chemical Weapons Convention Treaty.