

LT Cedric Nelson-Williams

recently returned from Afghanistan, where he earned a MSM for his performance while assigned to the Afghan Regional Security Integrated Command. Supported 35 FOO teams directly supported Afghan National Army (ANA), Afghan National Police (ANP), U.S. Mentor teams and the local economy with an influx of critical materials and currency thru his LOG operations.

Finally, he also served as the Region's sole coordinator for Aerial Carrier Delivery Service (CDS) which provided for air delivery of vital supplies to Coalition Forces in areas cut off by enemy forces, severe weather, or rugged terrain.