

Hala Strohmer is the Founder and President of Strohmer Consulting LLC, headquartered in Vienna VA. She provides financial management, information assurance, governance, risk management, training and advisory services to a multitude of large companies, multinational companies and agencies. Mrs. Strohmer served as the chair of the Accounting and Auditing committee of the Virginia Society of CPAs-Northern Chapter Fiscal year 2007/2008. Ms Strohmer received the Top 2007 diversity owned business award and Strohmer Consulting was ranked number 46 among top woman owned business in Virginia.

Prior to founding the firm she managed the Information Technology and Engineering Audit at Nextel, prior to that she advised, planned and participated in implementing the IT strategy and road map for the world lead company in construction materials. Mrs. Strohmer started her professional career as an auditor with the assurance and advisory group at Deloitte. She has in-depth experience in auditing and assessing highly complex systems and providing relevant advice from a regulatory, such as OMB A-123, FISMA and Sarbanes-Oxley, as well as a business perspective. Mrs. Strohmer developed and in the process of patenting a risk assessment model. Mrs. Strohmer is a frequent speaker on governance and risk management for professional organizations and other bodies, she holds a Master of Science degree in Information Systems Technology and holds the following certifications: Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA), and Project Management Professional (PMP).