

Frank J. Anderson, Jr.

President, Defense Acquisition University
Director, Human Capital Initiatives
Office of the Under Secretary of Defense, (AT&L), Department of Defense

Mr. Frank J. Anderson Jr. serves as the President of the Defense Acquisition University (DAU) and as Director, Acquisition, Technology and Logistics (AT&L) Human Capital Initiatives within the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Technology (AT&L). Mr. Anderson supports the Under Secretary, Acquisition, Technology and Logistics in executing department-wide Defense acquisition workforce strategic planning, policy and program responsibilities.

Prior to his current assignment, he culminated his career in the United States Air Force as a Brigadier General, serving as Commandant of Defense Systems Management College, Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Air Force Contracting, and Air Force Competition Advocate General. He also served as a major weapon system program director, product group manager, director of contracting for a major acquisition center, commander of a plant representative office, and warranted contracting officer.

Mr. Anderson is a graduate of the Defense Systems Management College, Air Command Staff College, Industrial College of the Armed Forces, and has a masters and bachelors degree in business. He is Level III certified in Program Management and Contracting. Mr. Anderson is the recipient of the Department of Defense Distinguished Civilian Service Award; he received the Distinguished Presidential Rank Award in 2007 and was selected as the Chief Learning Officer of the Year in 2004 by Chief Learning Officer magazine.

He currently serves on the Board of Directors for the National Contract Management Association. He is also a member of the Chief Learning Officer magazine editorial advisory board.