

Michael R. Moore has 24 years experience at Oak Ridge National Laboratory supporting National Security missions; spanning signals analysis and machine learning. He is the Deputy Director of both the Cognitive Radio Program and the Signals Solution Center. He has written several technology forecasts for DHS and DOD agencies.