

Randy Clark
Client Partner
Defense & National Security
Verizon Enterprise Solutions

Mr. Clark's current role is Client Partner at Verizon Enterprise Solution, and he is focused on Defense & National Security Agencies. In his role he supports complex technology solutions across the enterprise and wireless business units to implement value added systems to meet current & future business and operational needs.

Mr. Clark has held executive management positions at SARCOS Robotics and Oceus Networks where he has managed strategic programs and sales initiatives. Mr. Clark also served as a contractor for Headquarters Air Force - Logistic, Engineering, and Force Protection Policy Advocacy (HAF/A4PA), Pentagon as a Business Analyst for mobile technology.

Mr. Clark has 20 + years in the Telecommunications Industry originating at Nextel Communications and served in the United States Marine Corps, as a technician for Tactical Air Operations Command.

Mr. Clark has a Bachelor's of Business Administration - Marketing from the University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh, is the former Chairman of the Mobile Working Group, American Armed Forces Communications Electronics Association (AFCEA), Washington, DC Chapter, and is currently serving on the AFCEA International Technology Committee.