

LTG Edward (Ed) C. Cardon, USA (Ret.)
former Commanding General, Army Cyber Command and, Director, U.S. Army Business Office of Transformation

Lieutenant General (Retired) Edward C. Cardon has commanded at every level from company through Army Service Component Command. Some of his assignments include Observer/Controller at the National Training Center; Strategist to the Army Chief of Staff; Commander, 4th Brigade Combat Team, 3d Infantry Division; Deputy Commandant, US Army Command and General Staff College; Deputy Commanding General (Support), United States Forces -- Iraq; Commanding General, 2d Infantry Division, Republic of Korea; and Commanding General, US Army Cyber Command and 2d Army. His last assignment was as the Director of the Office of Business Transformation and as the Director, Army Futures Command Task Force. He deployed twice in support of IFOR/SFOR Bosnia-Herzegovina and on four separate occasions in support of OPERATION IRAQI FREEDOM between 2003-2011. His education includes a Bachelor of Science Degree from the United States Military Academy and two Masters Degrees - one from the National War College and the other from the United States Naval Command and Staff College, both in National Security and Strategic Studies.