

Eric Anderson

Director, Business Development

Mr. Anderson leads business development and capture, targeting new areas within the federal civilian market and interacting with customer and stakeholders to develop new business opportunities. Trained in Information Technology Infrastructure Library (ITIL) level 3 and with a Black Belt in Six Sigma practices, he has extensive knowledge in operational and financial improvement, possessing the proven ability to lead business units in lean delivery methodologies.

Mr. Anderson is a certified project management professional (PMP) and a certified scrum master (CSM). Mr. Anderson is a graduate of Lehigh University and holds a master's certificate in business process improvement from Villanova University. He is a graduate of the ACT/IAC Voyagers program and an active participant in both ACT/IAC and AFCEA organizations.