

CPT Chris Apsey currently serves as the Deputy Director of the Cyber Technical College at the Army Cyber School. He is the primary architect behind the Cyber School's design and implementation of Broadband Handrail (BBH) - a holistic, integrated approach to Cyber Training and Education.

CPT Apsey enlisted in the Army in October of 2006 as a 25B Information Technology specialist. His first duty station was at Camp Humphreys, South Korea, where he was a member of the S6 section in the 194th CSSB. In June of 2008, CPT Apsey was selected to attend the United States Military Academy. CPT Apsey graduated from USMA in May of 2012 with a Bachelor' Degree in Computer Science and a commission in the Field Artillery. After graduating from BOLC, CPT Apsey served as Battery XO for B Battery, 1-79 FA until he was selected to join the Cyber Branch.

CPT Apsey's awards include the Army Commendation Medal (two awards) and the Army Achievement Medal. He also holds the Parachutist badge and the Air Assault badge.