

Andrew Magliochetti is an expert in partnership architecture, structured finance, and multi-sector investments. He has more than 20 years of principal and advisory experience, and is particularly skilled in quantitative analysis, creative transaction and capital structures, and complex negotiations.